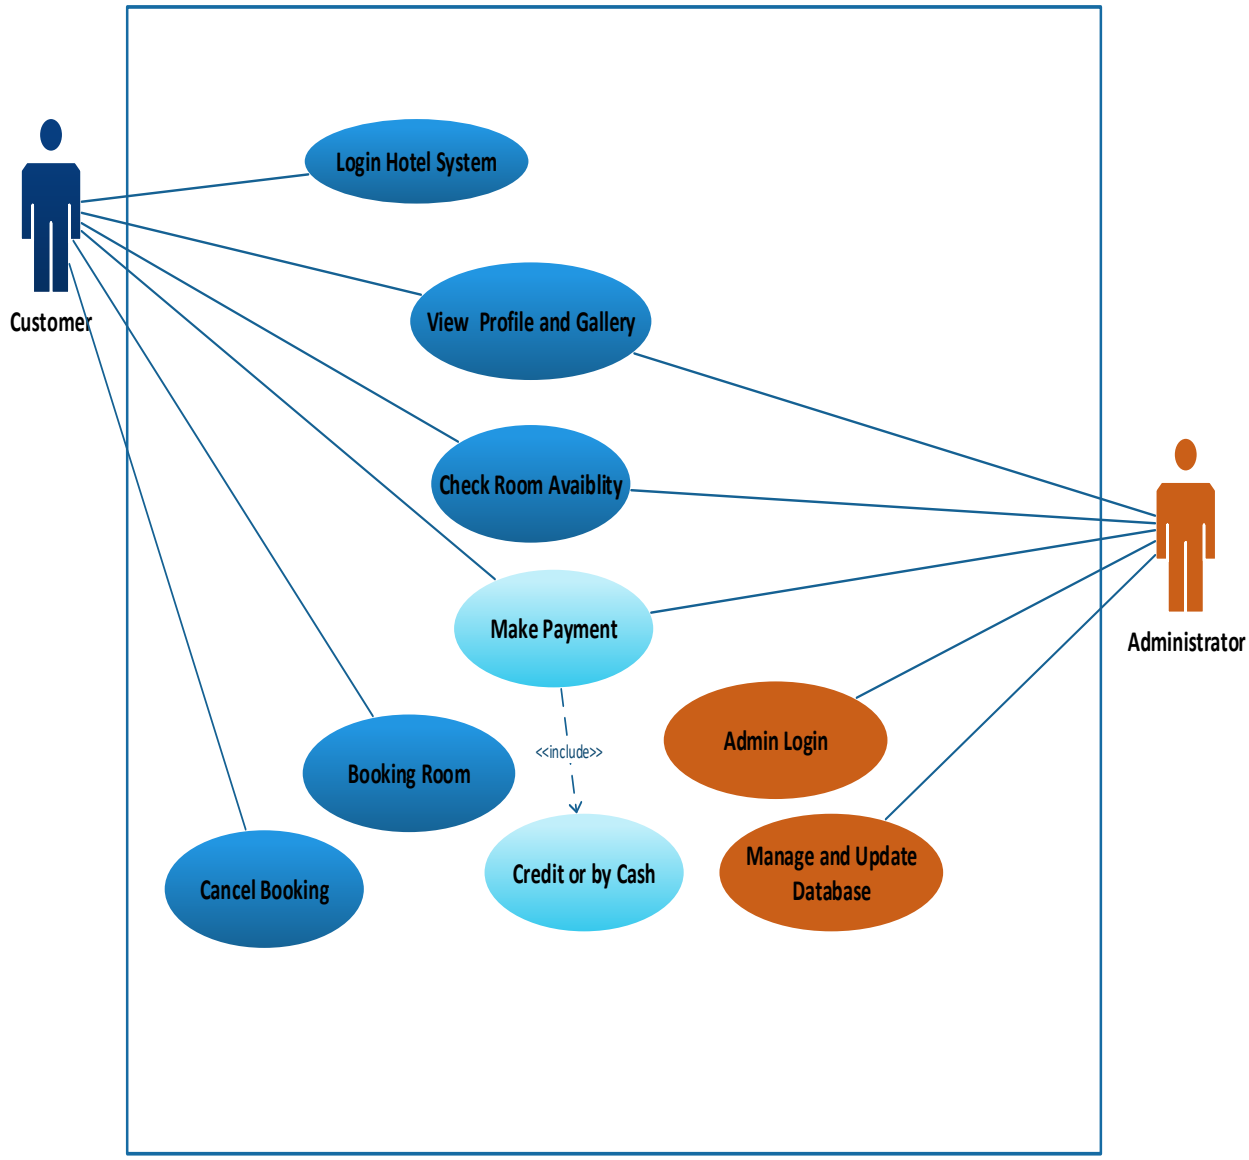
UML Project_ID_1271832

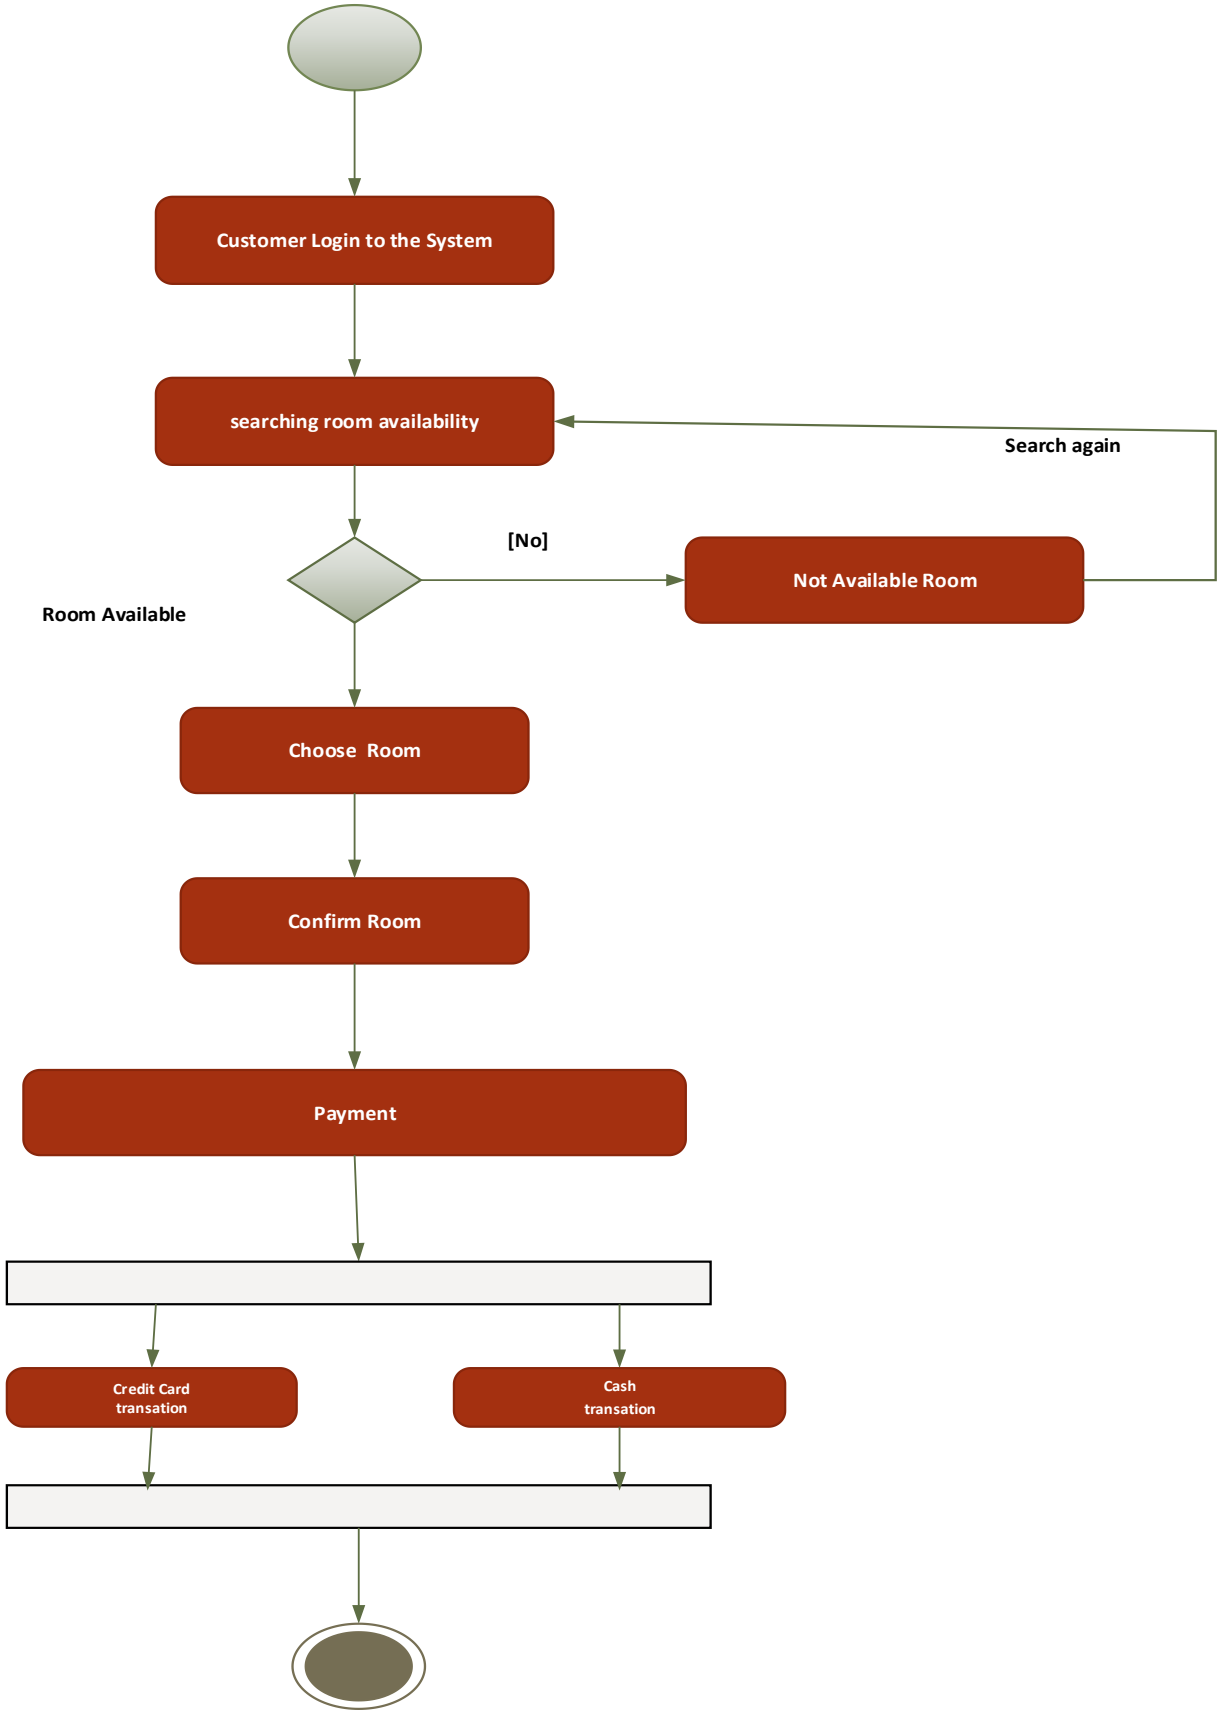
Case Study: Hotel management System

This case study titled hotel management is a system for monitoring and controlling hotel management system. It offers opportunity to all user to view it profile and gallery. Moreover user can login to the system for searching room availability, pricing and can ask for room booking. Moreover customer can contact reception to ask for room availability and check booking. Reception maintain customer's check in time and check out time. The cashier prepares bill and he receives amount by credit or by cash from customer. Administrator monitors customer's details and manages and update database.

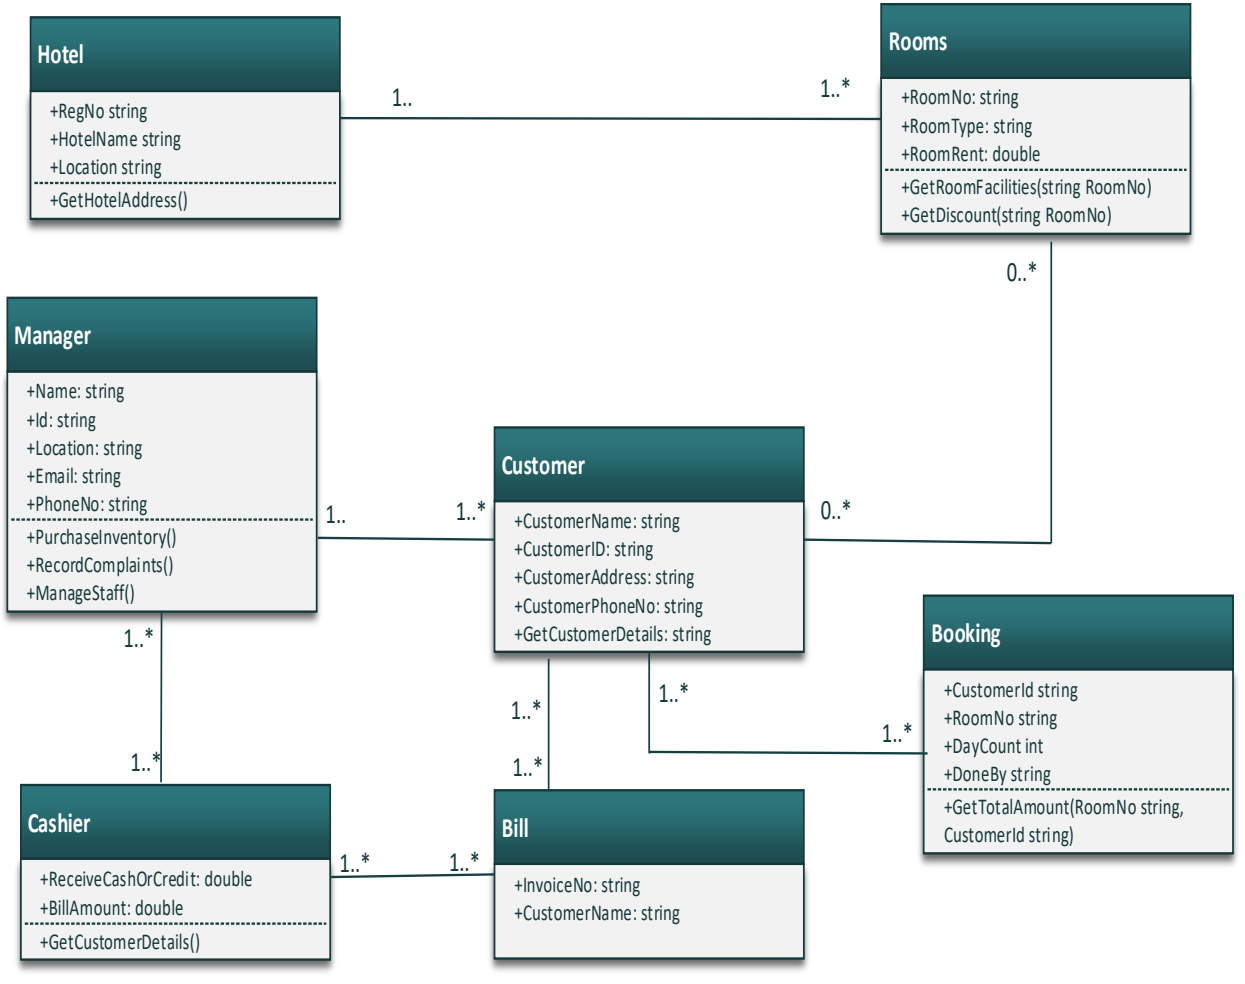
Use Case Diagram



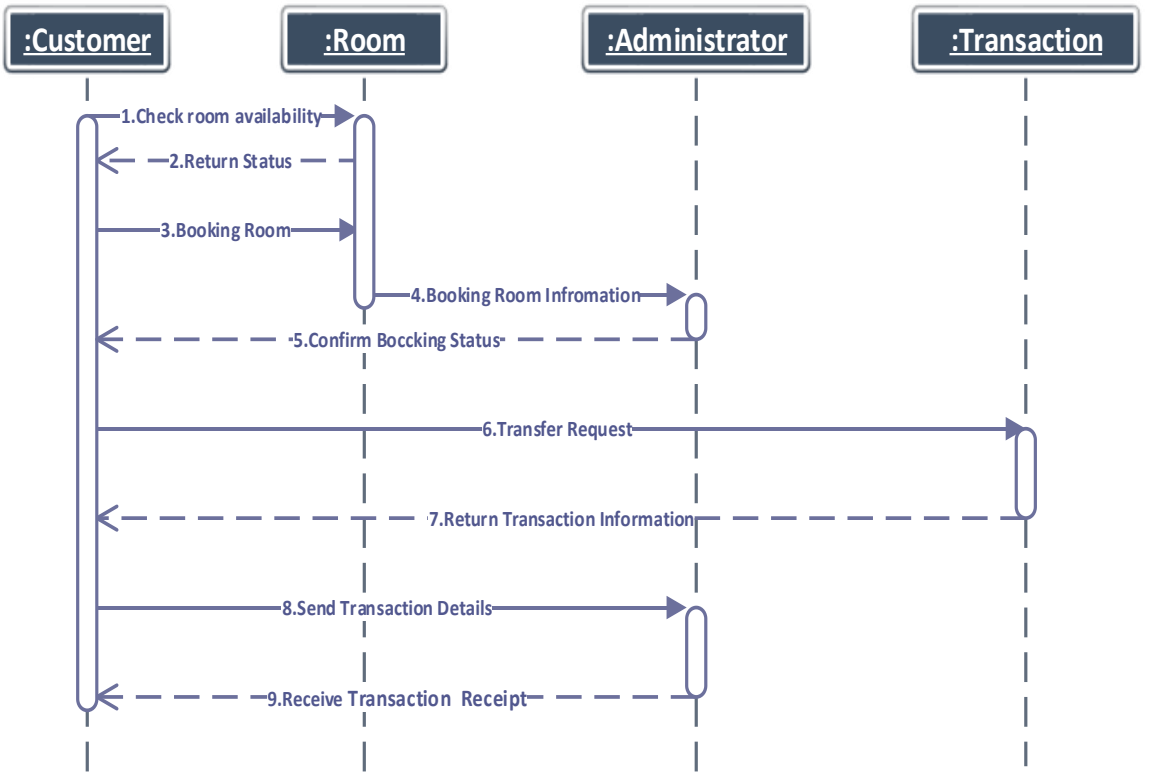
UML Activity Diagram



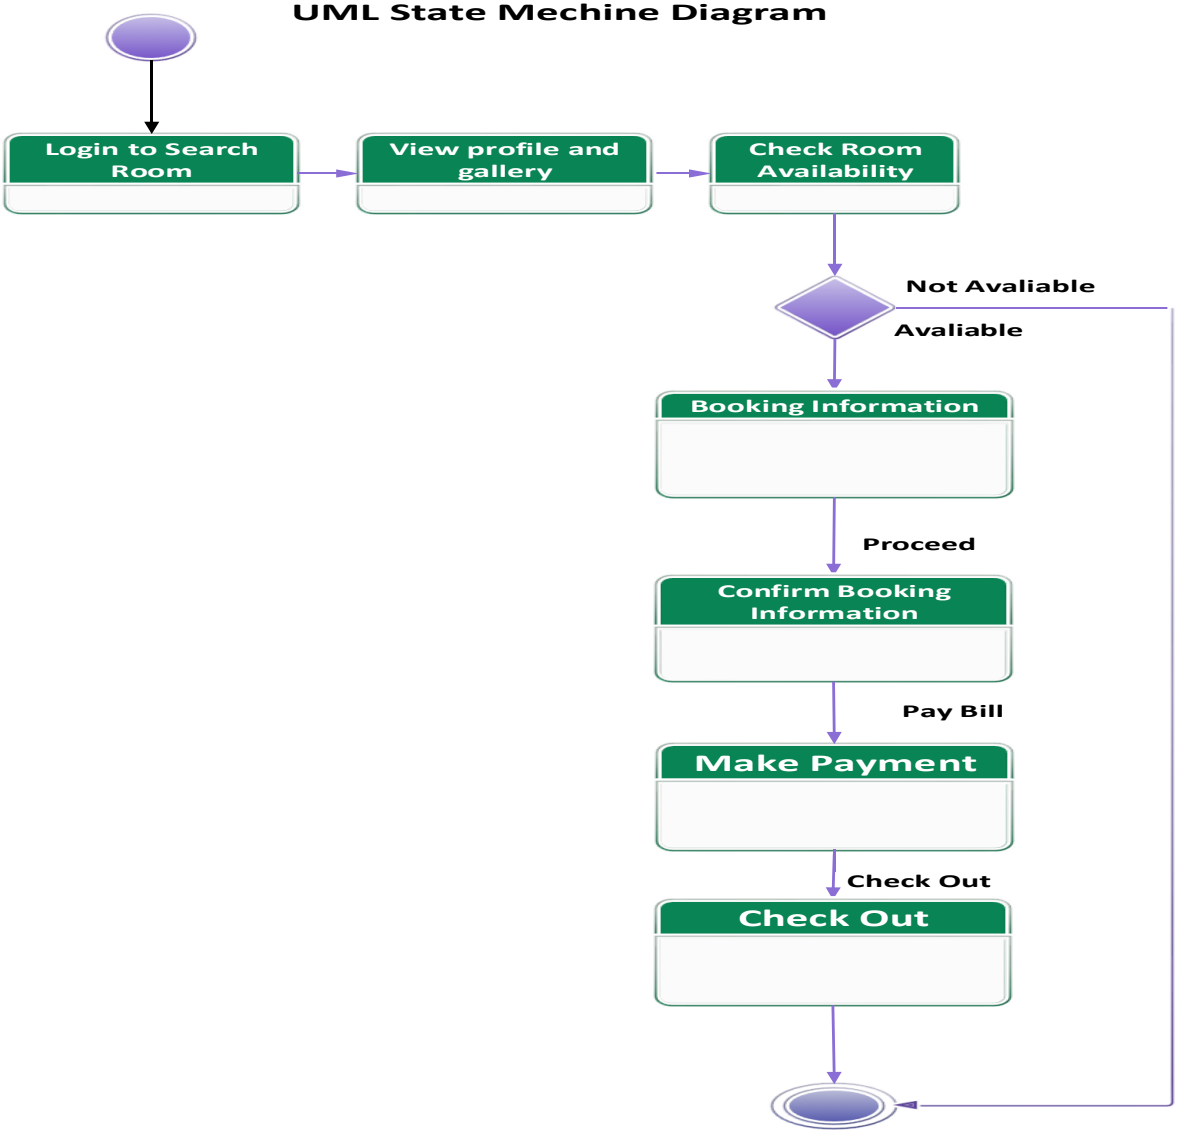
Use Class Diagram

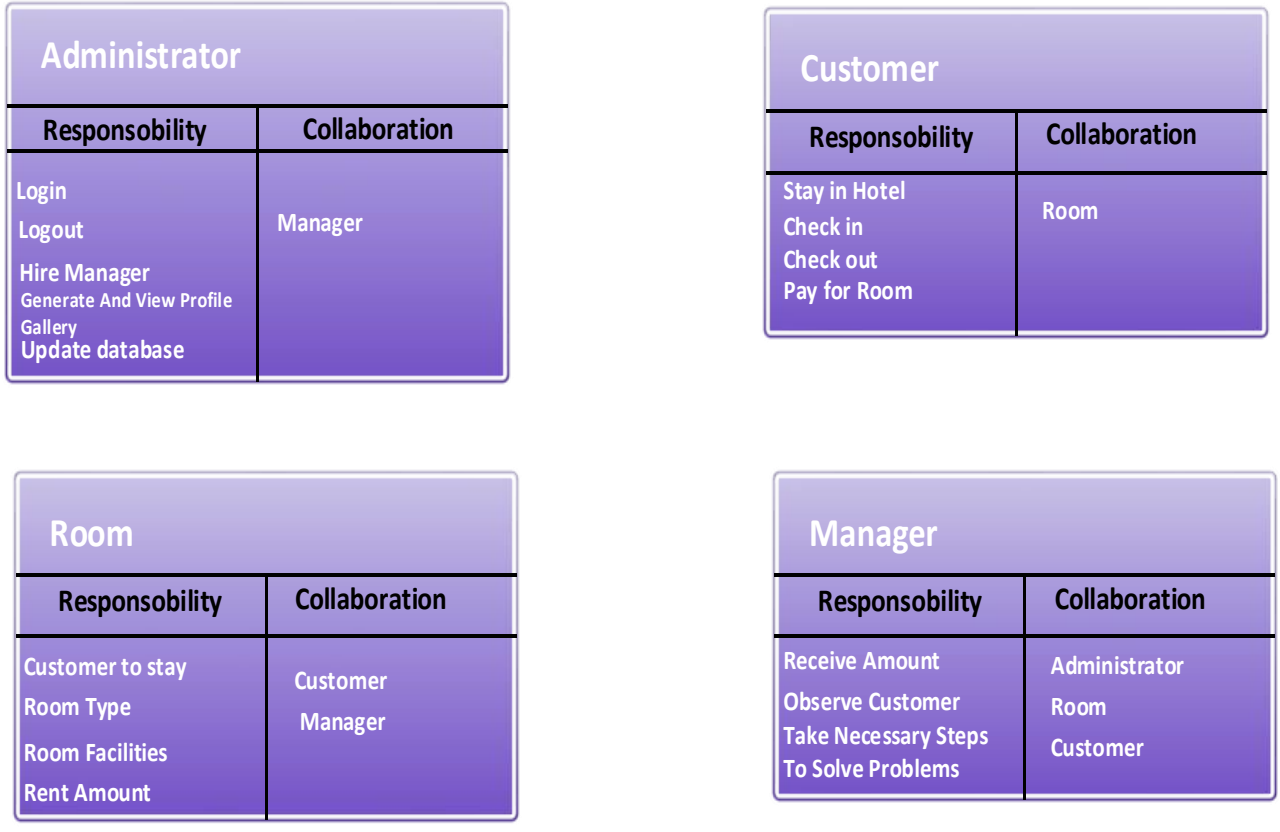


UML Sequence Diagram



UML State Mechine Diagram





CRC Card Diagram